[解答例1] I prefer to travel overseas independently. I am a very spontaneous person, but if I joined a package tour, I would have to follow a structured plan. This would mean that even if I didn't want to go souvenir shopping, I would have to go because it is part of the plan. I don't think I would enjoy this very much. Also, I am very interested in talking to local people when I travel overseas. If I travel independently, I won't have tourists from my country to talk to, so this will encourage me to make friends with local people. (100WORDS)

[解答例2] It is better to travel overseas through a package tour. If I book such a tour, I will have a much more enjoyable holiday with less stress. For example, if there is a problem with my hotel, my travel representative will find a new one for me while I enjoy my holiday. Also, I don't have to worry as much about language barriers, as even if I find myself in a difficult situation, I will be near a tour guide who can help me. Being with other tourists will make me feel safer and allow me to enjoy my trip. (100WORDS)
